– Japanese Studies in the 21st Century – Beyond Borders”

– International Conference on Japanese Studies
Wiesław Kotański in Memoriam

Warsaw, 19-21 May 2006

Japanese Studies Section of Warsaw University will be held The International Conference on Japanese Studies in Warsaw – from 19-21 May 2006. The theme for the conference is Japanese Studies in the 21st Century- Beyond Borders.

The conference will bring together scholars from Eastern, Central Europe and Japan to share the latest research in the fields of Japanese Studies. We also would like to celebrate the establishment of Polish Association of Japanese Studies (PAJS) and this conference will be the first meeting of the organization.

The conference will consist of two parts: the first part is intended as a session inaugurating activity of the Polish Association for Japanese Studies (PAJS) with participation of representatives of Japanese Studies Institutions in Poland and special guest from Russia, Ukraina, Lithuania, Czech Republic, Germany and Japan.

During the second part of conference our foreign guests as well as Polish participants will present academic papers on the recent trends in various fields of Japanese studies including Japanese literature, social and cultural history, religion and philosophical thought, language and script, art and aesthetics, media, traditional and modern arts and theatre.

The conference is intended as a forum for academic exchange and to strengthen cooperation between university centers of Japanese Studies in Central Europe and Japan.
